

It's your wonderful life. Tell the story so they'll watch it every year.

You've created a legacy --for your family, your business.
Here's an easy, comfortable way to share the highs, the lows, the lessons learned: a thorough, well-researched video conversation.

You want to share your experiences, celebrate your achievements, and inspire others to learn from the lessons you've learned. But your story needs to be told carefully and thoroughly, in a comfortable, engaging way that invites multiple viewings. That means telling your story in conversation...with a pro who can bring out the most vital and most interesting aspects of your life experience.

Legacies and Leadership will create for you a high-quality, highly personalized video presentation. Two-time New York Press Club award winner Ray Hoffman (21 years with BusinessWeek, 18 with New York's WCBS Newsradio 880) will tailor the questions to best suit your personality and accomplishments. And...you'll have complete control over the final product. Visit the website:

Lessons, Leadership, Legacy. Tell your story.
